With Effect from Academic Session 2026-2027 onward

EXTRACT OF EXAMINATION RULES AND REGULATIONS
B.A., B.Sc. & B.Com.

12.0 RULES RELATED TO PASS, PROMOTION AND FAIL FOR STUDENTS OF B.A. & B.Sc. (ODD TO EVEN SEMESTER)

a. A student of B.A. or B.Sc. shall have a maximum of 07 years (Under NEP) for completion of the concerned course starting from the year of his/her enrolment in the College. There is no provision for any extension subsequent to completion of 07 years.

b. A student of B.A. or B.Sc. shall be considered to be "Passed" in a major subject if he/she has secured 40% marks or more in internal assessment and Semester examination clubbed together in both theory papers clubbed together. The student shall also have to pass in the practical examination, if any, separately of that particular major subject.

c. A student of B.A. or B.Sc. shall be considered to be "Passed" in a minor subject if he/she has secured 40% marks or more in internal assessment and Semester examination clubbed together of theory paper. The student shall also have to pass in the practical examination, if any, separately of that particular minor subject.

d. To be considered as "Passed" in Odd Semester, the student must earn 100% credits out of the total credits (22 credits) assigned to all theory papers and practical papers, if applicable of that particular Odd Semester and add-on course clubbed together. If the student does not fulfil the above requirement, he/she shall be placed in the "Failed" category in that particular Odd Semester but will still be promoted to the ensuing even semester of the current academic session.

12.1 Criteria for promotion of B.A. & B.Sc. students from EVEN TO ODD Semester of the ensuing Academic Session:

a. For promotion from an even semester of a current academic session to the odd semester of the ensuing academic session, the combined credits of odd semester and even semester of the current academic session shall be taken into consideration.

b. The total credits assigned to all theory and practicals papers including add-on courses in the odd and even semester clubbed together of a single academic session is 44 credits.

c. If a student earns 100% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor subjects of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on courses of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "passed" category and shall be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

d. If a student earns minimum 50% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor subjects of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on course of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "promoted with carry-over" category and shall be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

e. If a student earns less than 50% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor subjects of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on course of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "failed" category and shall not be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session. Such students shall have to take admission as Ex-student in the current odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

f. In case of a subject with practical, credits separately assigned to theory and practical papers shall be awarded separately to students. That is, if a student fails in theory paper of a given major/minor subject but acquires passing marks in practical paper of the same major/minor subject, the credits assigned to the practical paper will be awarded to the student and the same will be counted in the total credits earned by the student at the end of each semester. Consequently, if a student fails in theory and/or practical paper of that subject, the students shall be considered failed in that subject.

13.0 RULES PERTAINING TO CARRY OVER EXAMINATION FOR STUDENTS OF B.A. & B.Sc.

13.1 A carry over examination of all failed papers (theory and/or practicals) of major and minor subjects and add-on courses of both odd and even semester of the current academic session will be conducted in the ensuing academic session after the completion of examination of even semester of the ensuing academic session.

13.2 Students will be permitted to appear in carry over examination only in the papers of major and minor subjects and add-on courses in which they failed in the current academic session. Marks of all papers (theory and/or practicals) in which the student has passed will be carry forwarded as it is.

13.3 In carry over examination(s) of all minor subjects, question paper shall be of objective type same as Semester examination.

13.4 Students who fail in carry over examinations also, will be permitted to appear in carry over examinations in the failed papers (theory and/or practicals) after completion of examinations of even semesters of the ensuing academic sessions untill the completion of time as per Section 12.0(a) of these rules.

13.5 After the declaration of result of each semester end examination and carry-over examination, there shall be provision for scrutiny of marks by filling an online form and paying the relevant fees. If a student is unable to fill the online scrutiny form and/or pay relevant fee due to one or another personal reasons, such students will not be permitted to apply for scrutiny of marks and no application will be entertained in this regard.

13.6 In order to appear in carry over examination, students will have to fill the online carry over examination form and deposit relevant fee within the time frame proposed by the college failing which, such student will not be permitted to appear in carry over examination.

13.7 All information related to examinations shall be available on the college official website and it will be the sole responsibility of the student to gather such information. If due to lack of such information, the student faces any problem, it will not be the responsibility of the college and no application or request will be entertained in this regard.

13.8 There shall be no carry over examination provision in case of internal assessment, tutorial, or any other kind of examination other than the end semester examination.

14.0 RULES RELATED TO PASS, PROMOTION AND FAIL FOR STUDENTS OF B.COM.

14.1 A student of B.Com. shall have a maximum of 07 years for completion of the concerned course starting from the year of his/her enrolment in the College. There is no provision for any extension subsequent to completion of 07 years.

14.2 To be considered as a "Passed in a paper/course" student, he/she must secure minimum 40% marks or more in Internal Assessment and Semester examination clubbed together in each major and/or minor paper/course separately.

14.3 The student shall be considered "Failed" in a major and/or minor paper/course if he/she does not fulfill the above requirements as mentioned in Section 14.2

14.4 Students of an odd Semester shall be promoted to the ensuing even semester of the current academic session even though the student may be placed in the "Failed" category as per Section 14.3 of these rules. However, passing/promotion from an even semester of the current academic session to odd semester of the ensuing academic session is dependent on the number of credits earned by the student in the current odd and even semester clubbed together.

14.6 Criteria for promotion of B.Com. students from ODD TO EVEN Semester of a concerned Academic Session:

a. A student of B.Com. shall be considered to be "Passed" in a major paper/course if he/she has secured 40% marks or more in internal assessment and Semester examination clubbed together in both theory papers clubbed together.

b. A student of B.Com. shall be considered to be "Passed" in a minor paper/course if he/she has secured 40% marks or more in internal assessment and Semester examination clubbed together of the minor paper.

c. To be considered as "Passed" in a Semester, the student must earn 100% credits out of the total credits (22 credits) assigned to all major and minor papers of that particular Semester and add-on course clubbed together. If the student does not fulfil the above requirement, he/she shall be placed in the "Failed" category but will still be promoted to the ensuing even semester of the current academic session.

14.7 Criteria for promotion of B.Com. students from EVEN TO ODD Semester of the ensuing Academic Session:

a. For promotion from an even semester of a current academic session to the odd semester of the ensuing academic session, the combined credits of odd semester and even semester of the current academic session shall be taken into consideration.

b. The total credits assigned to all major and minor papers/courses including add-on courses in the odd and even semester clubbed together of a single academic session is 44 credits.

c. If a student earns 100% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor papers/courses of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on courses of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "passed" category and shall be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

d. If a student earns minimum 50% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor papers/courses of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on course of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "promoted with carry-over" category and shall be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

e. If a student earns less than 50% credits out of the total 44 credits assigned to all major and minor papers/courses of odd and even semester clubbed together including add-on course of the current academic session, such student shall be placed in "failed" category and shall not be promoted to the ensuing odd semester of the ensuing academic session. Such students shall have to take admission as Ex-student in the current odd semester of the ensuing academic session.

15.0 RULES PERTAINING TO CARRY OVER EXAMINATION FOR STUDENTS OF B.Com.

15.1 A carry over examination of all failed papers/courses of both odd and even semester of the current academic session will be conducted in the ensuing academic session after the conclusion of examination of the even semester.

15.2 Students will be permitted to appear in carry over examination only in the papers/courses in which they failed in the previous academic year. Marks of the papers/courses in which the student has passed will be carry forwarded to the ensuing academic session.

15.3 Students who fail in carry over examinations also will be permitted to appear in carry over examinations in their failed papers/courses after completion of even semester examination of the ensuing academic sessions.

15.4 After the declaration of result of each semester end examination and carry-over examination, there shall be provision for scrutiny of marks by filling an online form and paying the relevant fees. If a student is unable to fill the online scrutiny form and/or pay relevant fee due to one or another personal reasons, such students will not be permitted to apply for scrutiny of marks and no application will be entertained in this regard.

15.5 In order to appear in carry over examination, students will have to fill the online carry over examination form and deposit relevant fee within the time frame proposed by the college failing which, such student will not be permitted to appear in carry over examination.

15.6 All information related to examinations shall be available on the college official website and it will be the sole responsibility of the student to gather such information. If due to lack of such information, the student faces any problem, it will not be the responsibility of the college and no application or request will be entertained in this regard.

15.7 There shall be no carry over examination provision in case of internal assessment, tutorial, or any other kind of examination other than the end semester examination.

15.8 There will be a second examination after declaration of result of each even semester in each academic session. The question paper of minor subject shall be subjective type.
