

Lecture organized under Ewing lecture Series by the Physics Society

The fifth lecture of the current academic session under Ewing Lecture Series was organized by the Physics Society on 3rd November 2023. Former Head of the Physics Department, Dr. R. P. Khare, delivered this lecture. Head of the department Dr. A. K. Shukla introduced the speaker in the beginning. Dr. Khare discussed experiments based on spectrometer and discussed the importance and details of spectrometer adjustments. B.Sc. Semester III and Semester V students actively participated in this lecture. Dr. P. K. Khandai proposed the vote of thanks.

5th lecture of Ewing series held

PRAYAGRAJ: The fifth lecture of the current academic session under Ewing Lecture Series was organised by the Physics Society at Ewing Christian College (ECC) on Friday. Former head of the Physics Department, RP Khare, delivered this lecture. Head of the department AK Shukla introduced the speaker in the beginning. Khare discussed many experiments based on spectrometer and discussed the importance and details of adjustments. BSc Semester 3 and Semester 5 students attended the lecture.

Hindustan Times, 4th November 2023